

Call for Papers

Financial and Monetary Economics FME 2025

October 3rd, 2025

13th Annual International Scientific Conference,
“Victor Slăvescu” Centre for Financial and Monetary Research,
Romanian Academy

We are pleased to invite you to the 13th Annual International Scientific Conference on Financial and Monetary Economics (FME 2025). The conference aims to foster academic dialogue and critical debate on some of the most complex, pressing, and relevant topics in economics.

Submissions are welcome from early-career scholars, senior academics, researchers, and practitioners alike. The conference will be organized in a hybrid format, allowing in-person and virtual participation.

We encourage the submission of theoretical contributions, empirical analyses, and research findings addressing the following sections:

- Fiscal Issues in the Globalized Economy;
- Financial and Monetary Challenges;
- Sustainable Development and Inclusive Economic Growth.

Key Dates

Submission of the full paper or extended abstract and Registration Form: September 10th, 2025

Acceptance/rejection notification: September 22nd, 2025

Conference day: October 3rd, 2025

Full paper submission for publication: October 6th, 2025

Registration Fee

There is no registration fee for the participation in the Conference.

Submission Guidelines and Publication

The submission of both full-length papers and extended abstracts (between 300 and 500 words) is encouraged. Full research papers will be written in English and must not have been previously published or submitted for publication elsewhere.

Authors are expected to adhere to the conference paper template provided on the official website when preparing their submissions. Each author may participate with up to two papers; however, only one may be selected for publication.

The abstract and authors' details should be submitted using the Registration Form. Authors are kindly invited to send both the completed form and their manuscript electronically to conferintaEFM@icfm.ro.

Full scientific articles may be published in the Journal of Financial and Monetary Economics, indexed in RePEc (EconPapers and IDEAS), JGATE and ECONBIZ.

In partnership with the FinTech journal, the 13th Annual International Scientific Conference - FME 2025 will select the best paper for submission to the special issue Financial Technology and Strategic AI Integration in FinTech. The editorial team will cover the publication fee.
