Financial and Monetary Economics FME 2026

October 2, 2026

14th Annual International Scientific Conference
“Victor Slăvescu” Centre for Financial and Monetary Research, Romanian Academy

We are pleased to invite you to the 14th Annual International Scientific Conference on Financial and Monetary Economics (FME 2026), organized by the “Victor Slăvescu” Centre for Financial and Monetary Research of the Romanian Academy.

The conference aims to foster academic dialogue and interdisciplinary debate on current challenges and emerging developments in economics, finance, monetary policy, and sustainable development. It welcomes contributions from early-career researchers, senior academics, practitioners, and policy experts. The event will be organized in a hybrid format, allowing both in-person and online participation.

We encourage the submission of theoretical contributions, empirical analyses, and research findings corresponding to the following sections:

- Fiscal Issues in the Globalized Economy;
- Financial and Monetary Challenges;
- Sustainable Development and Inclusive Economic Growth.

Key Dates

Submission of abstract or full paper and completed Registration Form: ~~September 11, 2026~~
September 18, 2026

Acceptance/rejection notification: September 25, 2026

Conference date: October 2, 2026

Submission of full papers for publication consideration: October 6, 2026

Authors interested in publication opportunities are invited to submit their full papers no later than October 6, 2026, although early submissions are strongly encouraged to facilitate the preliminary review process, the organization of thematic sessions, and the timely dissemination of conference-related information.

Registration Fee

There is no registration fee for participation in the conference.

Submission Guidelines and Publication

Submitted papers must be written in English and must not have been previously published or simultaneously submitted for publication elsewhere.

Authors are expected to follow the conference paper template provided on the official website when preparing their submissions. Each author may submit a maximum of two papers; however, only one paper may be proposed for publication.

To participate in the conference, authors may submit either an abstract or a full paper and are invited to complete the Registration Form. The completed form and, where applicable, the full manuscript should be sent to conferintaEFM@icfm.ro.

Selected papers may be considered for publication in the Journal of Financial and Monetary Economics, indexed in RePEc, J-Gate, EconBiz, OpenAlex, ROAD, EZB Electronic Journals Library and Crossref.

In addition, participants are invited to submit relevant manuscripts for consideration in two MDPI Special Issues: “AI × DeFi × Sustainability: Redesigning the Operating System of Global Finance” in FinTech and “AI-Driven Knowledge Management for Sustainable Organizations” in Sustainability. The Conference may support one manuscript in each Special Issue, with possible discounts for selected contributors, subject to journal policies, acceptance criteria, and peer review.
